

Del Cerro Elementary's Three R's Teaching Matrix

The Three R's	All Settings	Classroom	Playground	Hallways	Multipurpose Room	Library Media Center	Lunch Areas	Restrooms	Bus
Respectful (yourself and others)	Give your best effort	Listen	Be Friendly	Smile	Listen to the Presentation	Wait your turn	Practice good table manners	Honor privacy	Obey the bus drivers
	Be kind and caring	Stay on task	Keep Hands and Feet to self	Greet others with respect		Help those who need support
Responsible	Problem solve appropriately	Come prepared	Play safe	Walk	Make sure you are seated in a good place.	Return your books on time.	Clean up after yourself	Wash your hands	Use quiet voices
		Complete work	Share equipment		Respond appropriately to the presenter	Clean up after yourself
Reasonable	Get help if you cannot solve your own problem	If you need help, ask for it	Think before you act	Keep hands and feet to self	Applaud politely	Wait your turn	Use Polite conversation	Leave the restroom clean	Wait your turn
			Solve problems		Have fun and participate, but listen for whole group cues to get quiet quickly
Scholarly	Take advantage of every learning moment	Learn! (scholarly attributes)	Use your energy by playing a school game and come to class ready to learn	Use them to get to your destination	Think about what is being presented	Ask questions	Eat a healthy lunch and feed your brain	Use the restroom at break time	Polite conversation
	Look at things from a different perspective	Set goals							